

ReGen Consumer Participation Training

Days Monday 11th and Tuesday
12th of December

Time 10:00 am to 3:00 pm

Where 349 Bell Street Preston

Lunch Provided

Consumer Participation Training is free training for people who use ReGen services and want to contribute their ideas to service planning and delivery. This training is part of the Pathways Project.

If you are Interested in Consumer Participation training, contact Regina Brindle, ReGen's Consumer Participation Facilitator, using the details below:

Ph: 9384 8894, M: 0402825498

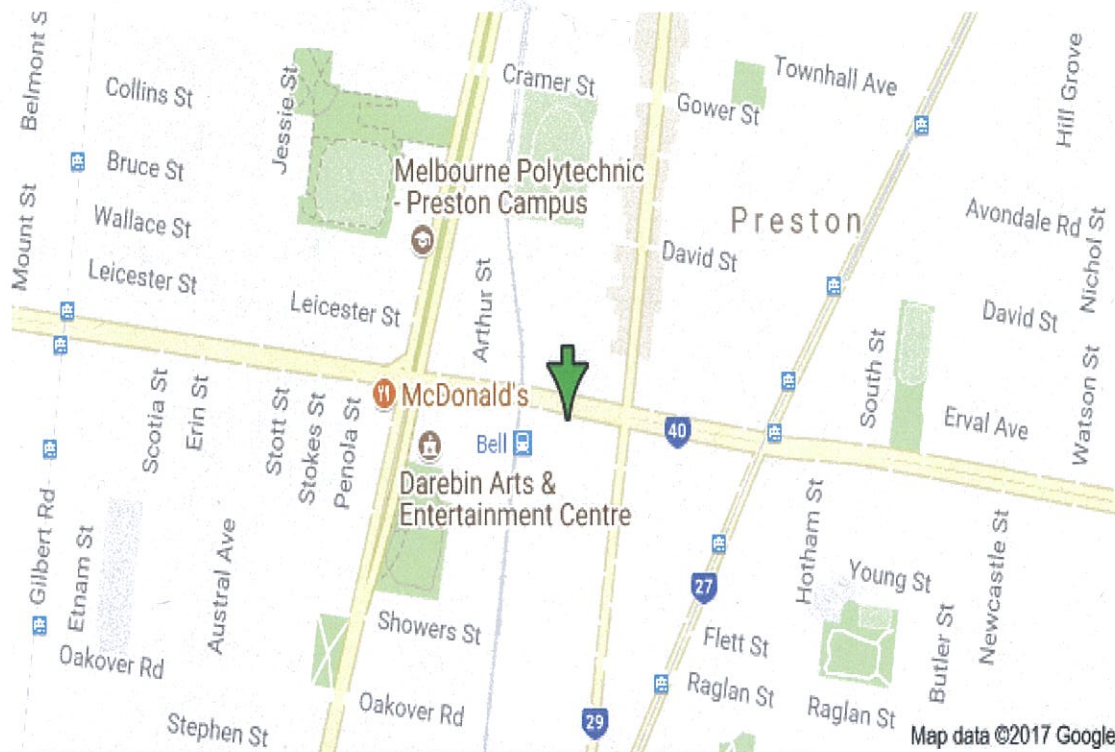

or email: rbrindle@regen.org.au

PATHWAYS

Location of Uniting ReGen 349 Bell Street, Preston

Parking is available at Darebin Arts Centre. From here walk west down Bell Street across the Railway Line until you see the ReGen sign.

For those on public transport, ReGen Preston is close to Bell Railway Station. The 513 Bus stop is on the corner of Bell Street and St Georges Road.